COLLEGE BASEBALL UVa.-Wise splits doubleheader

The University of Virginia's College at Wise claimed a 4-3 victory over Lindsey Wilson on Sunday in the second game of a Mid-South Conference
doubleheader. The Highland Cavaliers bounced back from a 4-1 loss in the opener.

In the nightcap, leadoff hitter Luis Roa drove in two runs, while Brad Ricker (John Battle) scored a run. Justin Wilson (J.J.
Kelly) was the winning pitcher in relief.

ETSU takes series

East Tennessee State University picked up its fourth series win Sunday as the Bucs rode the hot bat of senior Derek Trent (Kingsport, Tenn.) to an 11-5 win over Florida Gulf Coast at Cardinal Park.

Trent posted a season-best four hits as he led the way with two doubles, two runs and two RBI for the Bucs (16-8, 8-5 A-Sun).
Dylan Pratt (Johnson City, Tenn.) and Andrew Green (Powell, Tenn.) also had multiple hits.

King wins one, loses one

King College split a Sunday baseball doubleheader with West Virginia Wesleyan to close out the three-game home series.
King was a 7-3 winner in the opener before the Bobcats posted a 2-1 victory in Game 2.

King's Alex Martin pitched a no-hitter into the fifth inning in Game 1 and improved to 3-0 with

Dodge. After grabbing the lead from pole-sitter
J.P. Morgan on lap 146, Holman managed to hold off Bradley Rogers for first win of the season.

Just two weeks ago, Holman wrecked his Dodge at New Smyrna Speedway
in Florida. The next USRA race will be April 16 in Dillon, S.C.

Bristol racer featured in show

Virginia High School graduate Jenna Wagner was featured this weekend in the first episode of the Volkswagen Jetta TDI Cup Series documentary,
"Rookies to Racers" on
The Discovery Channel.

The documentary,
which will also air on
The Science Channel on April 7 at 8 p.m., is based on the 2010 Volkswagen Jetta TDI Cup Series and follows the series' 25 drivers from their first race at the Virginia International Raceway in Alton, Virginia to their last race
at Autodromo AMOZOC
in Puebla, Mexico.

Wagner is hoping to secure a full-time ride on the road courses for the 2011 season. She plans to also compete in the Late Model Charger division at Kingsport Speedway and Lonesome Pine Raceway.
