Race set for LPR

A United Auto Racing Association late model touring series event is scheduled for Saturday night at Lonesome Pine Raceway in Coeburn.

The program will also include the Legends, Street Stock, Pure 4, Renegades and Chargers divisions, plus a fireworks display.

Grandstands open at 4 p.m., with qualifying at 4:45. Drivers will participate in an autograph session from 6:15 to 7 p.m.

More information can be found at www.thepineraceway.com.

Wagner fares well

Virginia High School graduate Jenna Wagner won the pole position in the Charger division during the June 26 racing program at Lonesome Pine Raceway in Coeburn, Va.

It was the second pole of the season for Wagner, who joined Karen Schulz as the only female drivers in track history to win a pole in a feature division.

Wagner is also competing in the Volkswagen Jetta TDI Cup this season. The series has five races remaining, including stops in Mexico, Wisconsin and Illinois.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

Myer joins Wasps

Emory & Henry has added Bethany Myer of Hickory, N.C., to its women's soccer roster.

Myer, a 5-foot-5 forward, scored 44 goals and dished out 20 assists for Hickory High during her senior season, earning the conference player of the year award for her performance.

In addition, Myer excelled as a track and field athlete during her high school career. She was named all-state for her track and field accomplishments.
